PRESIDENT'S REPORT

University of NORTH ALABAMA

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

William G. Cale, Jr.

At this time each year, as I reflect on the past 12 months and all that has happened, I am often amazed at how much can transpire in such a short time. The close of the year 2012 is no exception.

The past year has brought much activity to campus: The grand opening of the new George S. Lindsey Theatre and the groundbreaking for the new Academic Center and Student Commons; the official site visit from our regional accrediting body, the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS), and the report of a perfect site visit review; the laying of groundwork for a first-of-its-kind Center for Integrative Health and approval to offer a graduate degree in that field, plus the announcement of two other new degree programs – the Master of Professional Studies and a graduate concentration in Public History.

This only scratches the surface of the success we've seen at the University of North Alabama this year. I invite you to read about these successes and many others in the following pages. As you do, please know that you and each and every person listed in this 2012 President's Report has played a critical role in this success.

The importance of alumni and friends like you to institutions like UNA becomes more valued each year. Because of you, UNA continues to grow and thrive even as public funding declines. Because of you, students are receiving scholarships, earning a quality education, and preparing for careers that are dreams fulfilled.

You are vital to this university. On behalf of the students, faculty, staff and administration, thank you for your generosity and support.

Sincerely yours,
William G. Cale, Jr., President

PLANS MADE FOR INTEGRATIVE HEALTH CENTER

A partnership between UNA and Shenqi Ethnic Medicine College (SEMC) in Guiyang City, China, will soon create a first-of-its-kind Center for Integrative Health in Florence. The center will train practitioners in a holistic approach to wellness, addressing the connection between disease, lifestyle and the whole person. Students will earn a master's degree in health and human performance with a concentration in integrative health.

An international memorandum of agreement was signed in January by Dr. William G. Cale Jr., UNA president, and Zhang Zhiting, founder and board chair of Guizhou Shenqi Group, which created SEMC.

"We are deeply appreciative to Mr. Zhang for his vision and generosity in this project," Cale said. "We cannot find another center like this one that specializes in integrative health training. This will be valuable not only for students but for society."

Through the UNA-SEMC partnership, UNA will be responsible for the development, implementation and operation of the program, while SEMC is responsible for land purchase, construction of instructional and residential facilities, and seed money for the hiring of faculty, staff and research assistants. The center is expected to be in full operation by fall 2014.

PERFECT OUTCOME RECEIVED FROM SACS REVIEW

In mid-spring semester, UNA received what its president, Dr. William G. Cale, Jr., called "rarest of rare outcomes." Following its on-site review of the university, an eight-person team from the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) reported no findings, recommendations or need for follow-up. Such a report from SACS is achieved by only about 2 percent of colleges and universities undergoing similar reviews.

SACS is the regional accrediting body for degree-granting institutions in the southeast. Every SACS-accredited institution undergoes a review every 10 years.

"I felt good going into the review," Cale said, "but no one anticipates a perfect outcome. This is an affirmation of the excellent quality found at UNA."

HENDRICKS

NAMED VICE PRESIDENT FOR UNIVERSITY ADVANCEMENT

Dr. Dan Hendricks was named UNA's vice president for university advancement in October.

"Dr. Hendricks will bring to UNA an outstanding track record with university advancement programs," said Dr. William G. Cale, Jr., UNA president. "His experience, polish and enthusiasm will serve this institution and this community very well."

As vice president for university advancement, Hendricks will head a university division responsible for alumni relations, major gifts, annual and planned gifts, corporate and foundation relations, and communications and marketing.

Hendricks and his wife, Barb, moved to the Shoals from Saint John, Ind. He had previously served as vice chancellor for advancement at Purdue University at Calumet, executive director of the Western Illinois University Foundation and vice president for advancement and public services, vice president and chief development officer for the Louisiana State University Foundation, director and chief operations officer for The Campaign for University of Kentucky, and director of planned giving for Hanover College.

Hendricks is a graduate of DePauw University and holds a master's degree and Ph.D. from Duke University.

GROUND BROKEN FOR ACADEMIC CENTER & STUDENT COMMONS

UNA broke ground in August for the new Academic Center and Student Commons, which will be situated between Rogers Hall and the Raburn Wing of Keller Hall near the main entrance of campus.

The new center will feature a full-service Starbucks, Chick-fil-a, Frostbite frozen yogurt and an expanded Follett Campus Bookstore. It will also house the University Success Center, the Department of Criminal Justice, the Center for Financial Literacy and The Hill, a full-service, student-operated branch of Listerhill Credit Union.

STUDY SHOWS $280M ANNUAL IMPACT BY UNA ON SHOALS ECONOMY

UNA and its students, faculty and staff impact the Shoals area by about $279,935,300 each year in direct and indirect spending, according to a study released in July. The study was conducted by Dr. Doug Barrett, Dr. Jim Couch and Dr. Keith Malone of the university's Department of Economics and Finance.

"The Shoals community is vital to UNA, and so it is important for the university, in turn, to show the growth and development we are able to bring to the Shoals," said Dr. William G. Cale Jr., UNA president.

The study analyzed UNA's local economic impact through university operations, contractor operations, student and employee spending, and spending through university events and guests.

The economic impact study is available at www.una.edu/impactstudy.

'LOOKING FOR LEO'

CHILDREN'S BOOK PUBLISHED

"Looking for Leo," a children's storybook about UNA's mascots, Leo III and Una, was published in April. The book was written by UNA alumnus and children's writer Dalen Keys and illustrated by UNA alumnus and cartoonist Walt Vandiver.

Books are available for $10 each through Follett Bookstore at www.una.bkstr.com or by calling 256-765-4400. Proceeds benefit the care of UNA's live lion mascots, Leo III and Una.

FAMILY DONATES DIARIES OF SALLY INDEPENDENCE FOSTER

The diaries of Sally Independence Foster, written in the Civil War era and beyond while she was a resident of Rogers Hall, now a part of the UNA campus, were donated to the UNA Archives Collection by her family in June. The donation was made by Foster's great grandson, James T. McDonald Jr., and his wife, Mary, of Atlanta; and her great granddaughter, Flora Speed, and her husband, James, of Marietta, Ga.

The Department of Music and Theatre debuted its new theatre and performance hall with "A Streetcar Named Desire" in June.

The donations include two diaries, spanning 1861-87, as well as business records dating back to 1835. McDonald said her diary entries from the Civil War era were particularly significant as she wrote from a house, Rogers Hall, occupied by soldiers, including Lt. Gen. Nathan Bedford Forest.

GEORGE S. LINDSEY THEATRE, ERNEST BORGnine PERFORMANCE HALL DEDICATED

UNA dedicated its new George S. Lindsey Theatre and Ernest Borgnine Performance Hall March 2, just months before the passing of the two Hollywood stars. Lindsey, a 1952 alumnus of UNA, and Borgnine were longtime friends of the university. For several years, UNA has been home to their archive collections, including Lindsey's complete collection of "Andy Griffith" scripts and Borgnine's scripts from "McHale's Navy," "Marty" and other important films and programs.

The Department of Music and Theatre debuted its new theatre and performance hall with "A Streetcar Named Desire" in June.

The donations include two diaries, spanning 1861-87, as well as business records dating back to 1835. McDonald said her diary entries from the Civil War era were particularly significant as she wrote from a house, Rogers Hall, occupied by soldiers, including Lt. Gen. Nathan Bedford Forest.

HENDRIX, WATFORD STAR IN 'STREETCAR'

UNA's summer 2012 production of "A Streetcar Named Desire" brought together on stage theatre students and notable Hollywood professionals. Leading the cast were Elaine Hendrix as Blanche DuBois and Myk Watford as Stanley Kowalski. Hendrix is perhaps best known for her role as opportunistic fiancé Meredith Blake in the 1998 Disney remake of "The Parent Trap." Watford is known for his roles on Broadway and as a cast member of the 2007 blockbuster film "No Country for Old Men."

"A Streetcar Named Desire" was the lead production of the university's 2012 Summer Theatre program.

"One of the priorities of Summer Theatre is to bring in professional actors for our students to work with," said Charlton James, assistant professor of theatre.

TOLKAN DONATES SCRIPTS, MEMORABILIA TO UNA ARCHIVES

Notable actor James Tolkan, in April, donated multiple film scripts and other memorabilia to the UNA Archive Collection, including such important documents as an original script from "Back to the Future." Tolkan is known for his diverse roles on stage and screen, including the strict, intimidating Principal Strickland in the "Back to the Future" films, Commander Hondo in "Top Gun" and memorable roles in "War Games," "Masters of the Universe," "Dick Tracy" and Woody Allen's "Love and Death."

Tolkan visited UNA in March 2010, when he was a celebrity guest at the George Lindsey UNA Film Festival.

THE CIVIL WARS PLAY to SELLOUT CROWD

The Civil Wars, featuring 1999 UNA graduate John Paul White, played to a sold-out Norton Auditorium Oct. 1 as a part of the university's Homecoming festivities. Proceeds from the show benefited the UNA Alumni Association and a new scholarship created in White's honor.

Since the February 2011 release of their first album, "Barton Hollow," which debuted at No. 12 on the Billboard 200 and No. 1 on the iTunes overall Albums chart, The Civil Wars' performances have included "The Tonight Show," "Good Morning America," "Jimmy Kimmel Live" and the "54th Annual Grammy Awards." In February, the duo took home Grammys for Best Folk Album and Best Country Duo/Group Performance. In March, they appeared on the cover of Billboard magazine.

UNIVERSITY FACEBOOK PAGE RECEIVES TOP HONORS FOR AUDIENCE ENGAGEMENT

The UNA Facebook page in September was named No. 1 for audience engagement among university Facebook pages with 20,000-74,999 fans. The ranking was from Varsity Outreach, a leader in social media marketing for university audiences. Varsity Outreach, last year, ranked the UNA Facebook page among the universities 100 largest. The UNA Facebook page currently has more than 21,000 fans.

This year's rankings for audience engagement place UNA first in a category that includes universities such as Ole Miss, Xavier, Nebraska and Marquette, all of which placed in the top 10. Varsity Outreach assessed university Facebook pages using a formula that measures the engagement value of a post based on the number of likes, shares and comments from fans, with shares and comments being given the most weight.

NEW MOBILE APP UNVEILED

UNA news headlines, game scores, calendars, maps, class schedules, grades and more are now just a touch away. The new UNA mobile app was launched in July for iPhone, Android and BlackBerry devices.

"This has been a goal of ours for several years as we've monitored the ongoing evolution of web-based media," said Josh Woods, UNA director of communications and marketing. "Today, mobile apps are a medium our students, alumni and others are using every day – and many times a day – so it only makes sense that we use that medium to reach out to our community in greater ways."

Web communications manager Jeremy Britten said that the app's "integration with our campus administrative softwares make it a practical, everyday tool that is going to make life much easier for students attending UNA."

GRADUATE CONCENTRATION IN PUBLIC HISTORY OFFERED

The Department of History and Political Science, this fall, began offering a graduate concentration in public history. The concentration is offered through the university's Master of Arts program in history, which was launched in 2007.

Public history is a growing field encompassing tourism, economic development, and historical preservation and conservation. Career opportunities in the field include museums, historic preservation organizations, historic sites and historical agencies at various levels of government. UNA is the second university in Alabama to offer a graduate-level public history concentration, joining Auburn University.

www.una.edu/history

DEGREE PARTNERSHIPS

UNA MBA PROGRAM NOW AVAILABLE IN ATHENS

Officials from UNA and Athens State University met on the Athens State campus in November to sign a partnership agreement making the UNA Master of Business Administration program available in Athens. UNA graduate business classes will begin on the Athens State campus in January 2013.

The UNA-Athens State partnership is making the traditional MBA program's eight core courses available through a hybrid format, including online and traditional classes to offer flexible scheduling. In addition to the core courses, the traditional MBA degree requires three elective courses from one of the program's eight concentrations. Concentration courses, with the exception of accounting, are offered online.

For more information, visit www.una.edu/mba-requirements.

UNA, ALABAMA A&M PARTNER TO OFFER MSW DEGREE IN FLORENCE

UNA and Alabama A&M University partnered in November to make Alabama A&M Master of Social Work degree available in Florence. The satellite program will begin offering advanced-standing courses at UNA in January 2013. Advanced-standing courses are for students already holding a bachelor's degree in social work from a regionally accredited institution.

Both the Alabama A&M MSW program and the UNA BSW program are nationally accredited by the Council on Social Work Education.

For more information on the Alabama A&M MSW program at UNA, contact the UNA Department of Social Work at 256-765-4391 or the Alabama A&M Department of Social Work, Psychology and Counseling at 256-372-8776.

MASTER OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES PROGRAM OFFERED

UNA's newest graduate program, launched this fall, offers a broad scope in its curriculum for working career professionals. The Master of Professional Studies offers a 33-36-hour program, including an 18-hour core component and up to 15 hours in one of three concentration areas. Thesis and non-thesis options are available.

MPS concentration areas include community development, safety and security leadership, and information technology.

For more information, visit www.una.edu/mps.

ONLINE MBA RANKED NINTH IN NATION

The College of Business's online Master of Business Administration degree program was ranked ninth in the nation on the 2012 list of Best Online MBA Programs, published by GetEducated.com, a national consumer guide to online colleges.

GetEducated.com surveyed the tuition costs of 107 regionally accredited business schools offering 201 online MBA degrees. The MBA program at UNA was named a Best Buy for its quality and affordability. The cost of the MBA degree at UNA is $11,952 – less than half the national average of $23,918.

$2.1m HRSA GRANT TO BENEFIT DISADVANTAGED NURSING STUDENTS AND UNDERSERVED COMMUNITIES

The College of Nursing and Allied Health received a grant of $2.1 million from the U.S. Department of Health Resources and Services Administration in October. The grant is paving the way for disadvantaged students, particularly underrepresented minorities, into UNA's new OPEN (Opportunities for Entry Into Nursing) program. OPEN is designed to address local and national healthcare needs among disadvantaged and minority populations.

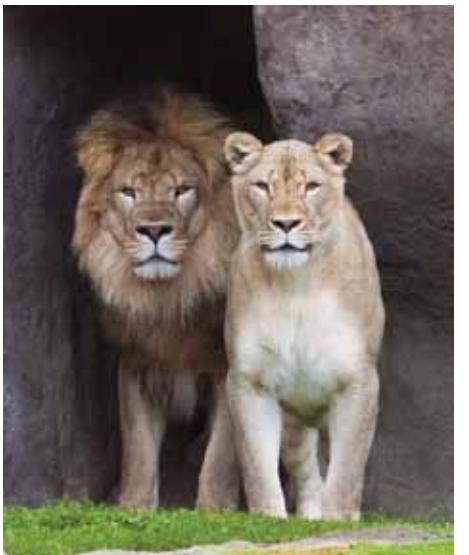

"Minorities in underserved areas are at significantly higher risk for heart disease, obesity, stroke, diabetes and other diseases," said Dr. Birdie Bailey, dean of the UNA College of Nursing and Allied Health. "Through this new program, we intend to train individuals from those areas to bring a greater quality of healthcare service back to their communities."

The two 10-year-old lions living on the UNA campus may not know it, but they gained national recognition in September when ranked No. 1 of the 25 Best Real Animal Mascots in College Football by totalprosports.com. UNA was the only non-Division I institution to make the list, joining the company of competitive NCAA teams such as the Baylor Bears, LSU Tigers and Texas Longhorns.

The lion has been UNA's mascot for nearly 40 years, since the original Leo was adopted by the UNA family in 1974. UNA's remains the only campus in the country to house live lions. Leo II was voted Second Best Mascot by Sports Illustrated in 1997.

PLAZA DEDICATED TO COACH BILL JONES

The new Bill Jones Plaza was dedicated to the memory of Coach Bill Jones in July. The 800-square-foot plaza is located in front of Flowers Hall and includes a flower garden, tables and a seating area and a brick and limestone structure supporting a plaque detailing Jones's contributions to the university.

Jones, who passed away in 2008, was a Lion basketball player and a 1958 graduate of UNA. He returned to UNA in 1974 as men's basketball coach and assistant athletic director. He became UNA's first full-time athletic director in 1987. In his 14 years as basketball coach, Jones compiled a 259-141 record that included three Gulf South Conference championships, six NCAA Tournament appearances, five NCAA regional championships, four Final Fours and the 1979 NCAA Division II National Championship.

STEWART & LISA CINK ANNOUNCE $183,000 GIFT

PGA Tour golfer Stewart Cink and his wife, Lisa, have announced a $183,000 gift to the Lion athletics program. The gift is establishing the Stewart and Lisa Cink Scholarship Endowment Fund for graduates of Florence High School, adding to the university's Chris Burns and Alex Sloan Endowment Fund and assisting in the construction of the Stewart and Lisa Cink UNA Golf Clubhouse and Teaching Center at the Robert Trent Jones Golf Trail at The Shoals.

Stewart and Lisa Cink are 1991 graduates of Bradshaw High School, which later merged with Coffee High School to become Florence High School. Stewart Cink spent his early years as a golfer under the mentorship of Burns, retired golf pro at the former Florence Golf and Country Club. He has played golf professionally since 1995, joined the PGA Tour in 1997 and won his first major, the 138th Open Championship, in 2009.

BOBBY BACK! COACH BOBBY WALLACE RETURNS TO UNA

Bobby Wallace, the architect of UNA's unparalleled football success in the 1990s that included three straight NCAA Division II National Championships, just concluded his first season back as head coach for the Lions. He was announced as head coach Jan. 2.

Wallace coached the Lions 1988-97, posting an 82-36-1 record that included six NCAA Division II playoff appearances, three Gulf South Conference championships and three consecutive NCAA Division II National Championships. Since 1997, Wallace has served as head football coach for Temple University and for the University of West Alabama.

UNA VISION

Dr. Dan Hendricks

I arrived at the University of North Alabama in October and have received such a gracious welcome as the new Vice President of University Advancement and Executive Officer of the UNA Foundation. It is a privilege to be a part of the UNA community and a particular joy to report the generous outpouring of support for the University and its educational mission. Let me simply say, "thank you."

Your many gifts to the University bear witness to a tradition of philanthropy that stretches back through the years to 1830. Through the years, the harvest of your generosity has grown and with it, the rich bounty of educational benefits and services in our classrooms and laboratories. I need not chronicle what this has meant to thousands of UNA graduates who have walked across the stage at graduation and gone on to bless communities in our State, nation, and the world with their enlightened lives and good work.

Some of the highlights of the 2011-2012 giving year were:

- The much-anticipated children's book "Looking for Leo" which was authored and illustrated by UNA alumni Dalen Keys and Walt Vandiver was released.
- Three retiring faculty members became part of the legacy of the Isbell Scholars group.
- A scholarship was endowed to honor the memory of Senator Howell Heflin.
- The grand opening ceremony was held for the new downtown location of the Department of Entertainment Industry and the Mane Room.
- The University broke ground on the new Academic Center and Student Commons facility located next to historic Rogers Hall.
- Friends and alumni of UNA celebrated the inaugural Shoals India Endowed Scholarship Appreciation Dinner to announce three endowed scholarships.

This past year gifts and pledges to UNA totaled $3,678,737. This represents a stunning 27% increase over last year. Gifts and a more positive investment environment enabled UNA Foundation assets to grow by 21% from $18,259,277 in 2011 to $22,019,305 in 2012.

Let me express again my appreciation on behalf of the entire Advancement Staff to our alumni and friends for your partnership with the Foundation and your wonderful support of our University. As with those who came before us, your continuing love and loyalty to the University of North Alabama will echo through the years, bearing witness to an abiding belief in the immeasurable value of higher education and the good work that abounds under the stately oaks.

HELP BUILD THE PRIDE

SUPPORT YOUR UNIVERSITY

When you give to the University of North Alabama you become part of an important legacy, joining the generations of alumni and friends helping the next generation of college students. Your financial support provides scholarships, updated technology, study abroad opportunities, and state-of-the-art facilities. The University requires funding to continue to be the first-class institution of higher learning it has always been.

The simple fact: State funding has been decreased by 30 percent, which means we need our Alumni and Friends' support to achieve our current and future goals, now more than ever.

BENEFIT YOUR COMMUNITY

Another benefit to contributing to UNA is the positive economic impact the University has on the Shoals community. The figures below are a small sample of this impact.

UNA's TOTAL IMPACT ON THE SHOALS ECONOMY

JOB AS A RESULT OF UNA • 4,433
EARNING AS A RESULT OF UNA • $159,268,536

SHOW YOUR ALUMNI PRIDE – for the students' sake.

When you donate to the University of North Alabama Foundation, you are part of more than a group of UNAs most distinguished graduates – you are part of a family that paves the way for future generations of UNA students. Your support for students by giving back will fuel much-needed scholarships for students from your local area, from your college or from your designation of choice.
